Summer Reading Assignment for AC Classes

- Complete Writing Assignment—Choose to answer three (3) out of the five (5) below. Provide a ½-1 page response for each response. Write or type the question at the top of the page. Answer the question thoroughly and completely with topic sentences, examples and cite evidence from the novel, and any personal reflections or connections related to the question.

1) Interview a character from the book. Write at least 10 questions and answers based on evidence in the text.
2) Write a journal that one of the book’s main characters might have kept during or after the events in the story. Include the character’s thoughts and feelings.
3) Create a presentation about the book to persuade other people to read it.
4) Make at least five detailed and colorful illustrations to go with scenes in the narrative and write a paragraph with each one to explain what is happening and why the scene is important in the story.
5) Imagine that you are the author of the story. Write a letter to a Hollywood producer to explain why your story, characters, conflicts etc. would make a good movie. Suggest filming locations and some actors who could be cast in the major roles.
